Serpent's Bite & Adder's Sting.

BY REV. JOHN PIERPONT. Thou sparkling bowl: thou sparkling bowl: Though lips of bards thy brim may press, And eyes of beauty o'er thee roll, And song and dance thy power confess I will not touch thee; for there clings

A scorpion to thy side, that stings. Thou crystal glass! like Eden's tree, Thy melted ruby tempts the eye, And, as from that there comes from thee Thy voice, "Thou shalt not surely die." I dare not lift the liquid gem-

A snake is twisted round the stem ! Thou liquid fire! like that which glowed, For Paul upon Melita's shore. Thou'st been upon my guest bestowed ; But thou shalt warm my house no more, For wherevoe'er thy radiance falls Forth from thy heart a viper crawls :

What, though of gold the gobiet be, Embossed with branches of the vine : Beneath whose burnished leaves we see Such clusters as poured out the wine Among those leaves the adder hangs ! I fear him ; for I've felt his fange. The Hobeew, who the desert trod. And felt the flery serpent's bitc, oked up to that ordained of God, Cool, when he drinks what God ordnine Ye gracious cimils, ye deep, cold wells ! Ye gems, from mossy rocks that drip! Springs from the earth's mysterious cells ; Gush o'er your granite basin's lip ! To you I look-your largess give, And I will drink of you and live.

And found that life was in the sight :

s the worm bitten's fiery veins

Foreign Intelligence.

The North German Gazette, in a leading artile, hints that Germany will make her influence felt in the election of the next Pope. She has always exercised that right in common with other countries. What then is meant by the new movement? Doubtless to make German influence political as well as religious in the direction indicated. That is the Bismarck policy.

The New York Standard estimates that 70,000 workmen were out of employment in that city workmen were out of employment in that city while contending for eight hours per day. Their daily wages when at work average $3, making a Corner Fort and King Sts.

IMPORTERS AND DEALERS IN HARDdaily wages when at work average $3, making a loss to the workmen amounting to $210,000 per day, and $1,260,000 per week. The bosses make from 10 to 100 per cent. off their workmen -- say 25 per cent , then their loss in percentage alone would be $315,000, and when added to the journeymen's less amounts to $1,575,000, which is in one week withdrawn from circulation.

A return to the old plan of apprecticing boys to trades is being advocated. The hosts of young men in every large city who apply for employment and fail to get it for the reason that they cannot truthfully affirm that they are educated or specially fitted for any particular business, constitute a potent argument in favor of reform. Under the apprentice system we should have fewer ignorant mechanics and incompetent business men. A trade is half a man's fortune.

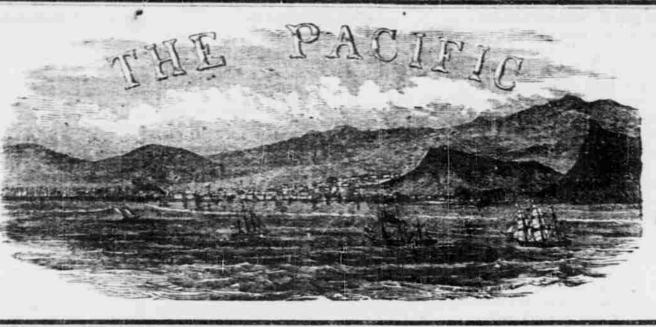

Dexter Reynolds, a prominent member of the Albany bar, has invented a type-setting machine, which, having been pronounced a complete success by type founders in Boston, New York and Philadelphia, has been sold for $100,000 to a combination of New York capitalists. The machine is said to be exceedingly simple in construction and easy of operation, with a capacity of 2,-000 ems per hour. Other type-setting machines have been invented, proving only partially suc-

A Nonce Institution .- For an institution of a novel and noble kind Germany is indebted to the energetic initiative of Her Majesty the Empress-Queen. Shortly after the late war had begun, the officers' families were being largely deprived of their fathers and husbands. Her Majesty proposed that the assistance regularly allowed to their sons should be extended to their daughters likewise, and an establishment formed for a firstclass education of these orphaned children. Thanks to Her Majesty's liberal donation, followed by subscriptions from all sides, the plan has now been carried out, and so effectively that the establishment, which is not limited to the pensioners of the Empress-Queen, promises to become a model school even in this well-taught country. The Kaiserin Augusta Stiftung is situate at Charlottenburg, a rural suburb of Berlin, and already begins to attract young ladies of rank, not only from Germany but also from foreign countries. A large meeting was recently held in Park street church, Boston, to promote the establishment of a mechanical and industrial institute in that city. The meeting was addressed by Josiah Quincy, S. S. Cobb and Wendell Phillips. Some of the latter's remarks are worth quoting: " I don't believe the state will ever do its duty until it fits the man to get his bread. I think the state is bound to give to the child of every man in the community, poor and rich, the opportunity of a book education and to learn a trade. In the last years of his apprenticeship he should get his living out of it. We have hitherto elevated the brain until we have starved the very feet. The school system of to-day doesn't contemplate the fact of a man's having a stomach and needing to be able to get something to put into it. The education of to-day is a monster. It is almost as bad as that of the lower classes in England, who know only how to use a spade or watch a spindle."

Russia is evidently very sensitive on any question which may renew the agitation on the Eastera controversy. The apparently benevolent intention of England to directly interfere with Italy la Roumania in behalf of the persecuted Jews, it regarded by her with suspicion. The object may be a worthy one, but the opportunity of taking hold of the local affairs of Roumania would be too tempting for these nations. Russia cannot possibly consent to have such neighbors so near home. It is better for all if only a moral influence is exercised upon the Roumanian Government. Perhaps there is some good reason for this apprehension of Russia. However, it is a pity that the Roumanian authority cannot be constrained to do their duty by force. The civilized world is fast learning the necessity of an in-ternational tribunal which shall try the cases of those sovereigns who abuse their powers, and shall deprive them of the same if not deposed by their people.

New evidence accumulates every day that the Indians mistake the peace-policy of the Government for cowardice. As a consequence, they become bolder every day, and now a great Indian war is threatened in Texas, in which the Kiowas, assisted by the Apaches, will take a prominent part. Already 3,000 Indians have invaded Texas under the pretence of liberating their Chief, Santanta, now in the State Prison there. Should a general Indian war break out, the cost in life and money would not be a small matter, and the prospect of ending it soon, in such an immense territory, would not be very flattering. Since the Indians have so badly misunderstood the humane policy of Government, it is absolutely necessary that they should now understand its severity. No one, if he be a humane and Christian man, should blame the Administration for having tried the first method. But every one policy has failed, the severe method must be may now reasonably expect that, since the peace-
